

EQ-i 2.0® and EQ 360 Reports

Being certified in the EQ-i 2.0® and EQ 360 gives you access to a range of products within the EQ-i 2.0® Universe.

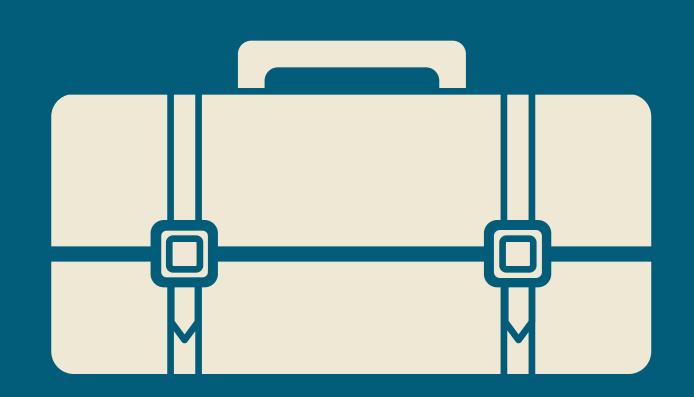

Client Report

Introduces the EQ-i 2.0® model and a detailed, personalized interpretation for each of the 15 subscales complete with strategies for action and development.

There are a number of reports within the EQ-i 2.0[®] Universe of Solutions that you can use individually or together to meet the development needs of your clients

Coach Report

Helps you better understand how results were derived, allowing for better interpretation to enable valuable client feedback. Includes follow up questions, item level responses, and a guide on how to conduct a debrief.

EQ-i 2.0[®] Workplace Report

Designed to be used during coaching and development situations in work settings for all individuals in an organization.

Focused on the impact of emotional intelligence at work and offers suggestions for working more effectively in one's role with colleagues, supervisors, and clients.

EQ-i 2.0[®] Leadership Report

Links a person's self-evaluation of their emotional intelligence and leadership development.

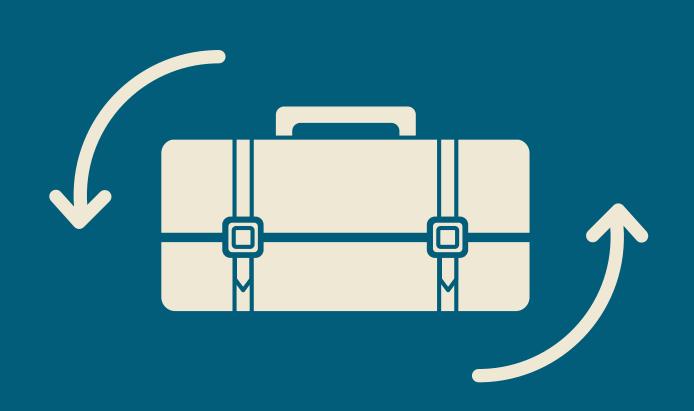

Provides a comprehensive overview of how the person's emotional intelligence compares to that of other leaders and gives insight into their leadership strengths and areas of development.

EQ-i 2.0[®] Group Report

Allows for deeper insights into a group's strengths and areas where the group can be more effective.

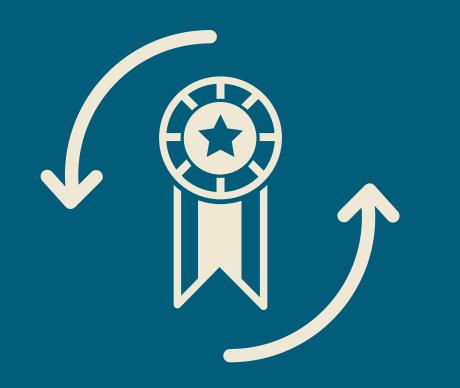

Enables discussion around team-level implications of emotional intelligence.

Workplace EQ 360 Report

A multi-rater measure of emotional intelligence (EI) designed to provide people with a complete view of a client's emotional and social functioning.

The client's report combines their self-evaluation of EI with their raters, providing a rich understanding of their EI capabilities.

Leadership EQ 360 Report

A multi-rater report that helps you view your client's scores through a leadership lens. This report is the most comprehensive examination of a leader's emotional intelligence.

Provides an in-depth look at El strengths and weaknesses through the lens of leadership. Compare how your client sees themselves with observations from others, offering a complete 360-degree perspective on your client's El profile.

Unique Features:

An overall picture of your client's results.

Deeper insights into the impacts of each subscale on the emotional, social, and behavioral aspects of work.

Unique Features:

A Leadership Potential Page
Explains how your client's EQ-i 2.0® results impact their functioning in four key leadership competencies.

Leadership Bar
Highlights how your client's scores fare in comparison to top leaders.

Unique Features:

Group Pattern Analysis Page
View the relationship between individual scores and group averages in an easy to interpret graph.

Subscale Pages
A snapshot of group results for each subscale including the distribution of responses and scores.

Unique Features:

Profile Gap Analysis
Identify blind spots, allied strengths, and developmental opportunities.

Rater Response Summary

Easy to interpret one-page summary of responses from all rater groups.

Unique Features:

Profile Gap Analysis

Identify blind spots, allied strengths, and developmental opportunities.

Rater Response Summary

Easy to interpret one-page summary of responses from all rater groups.

To view sample reports, log into your TAP Account \rightarrow click on EQ-i 2.0 $^{\circ}$ or EQ360 product logos \rightarrow Click on Resources on the left.

For more information about the EQ-i 2.0® Full Suite of Reports, please call 1 800 456 3003 or email us at talentcontent@mhs.com

